PSYCHOLOGY EXAMINING BOARD

PSYCHOLOGY EXAMINING BOARD MEETINGS AND APPLICATION DEADLINES

Licensed Psychologist and Private Practice School Psychologist

The last step in the licensure procedure is successful completion of the ethics (Wisconsin Rules and Statutes or jurisprudence) examination and appearance before the Psychology Examining Board for an oral interview.

To be approved for the ethics exam and oral interview, your application file must be complete, i.e. all supporting documents must have been submitted correctly and completely and national exams passed, 30 days prior to a board meeting date in order for the file to be reviewed by the board on that date. If the board approves your file, you would sit for the ethics exam and appear for the oral interview on the meeting date subsequent to the meeting date that your file was reviewed.

Board meetings and deadline dates are as follows:
